Little Ferry Announces Record Family Fun Day Donations

Little Ferry – September 15, 2011

Little Ferry Mayor Mauro Raguseo announced today a new record for Family Fun Day Donations. Mayor Raguseo stated that with one week to go before Family Fun Day, the Borough has received over $30,850 in donations.

“Family Fun Day is entirely paid for through private donations of our exceptional local business community,” stated Mayor Raguseo. The event, to be held this year on Saturday, September 24 at Lakeview Park, demonstrates the continued commitment of the private sector towards the tight-knit community that is Little Ferry.

Councilwoman Peggy Steinhilber, Chair of the Borough’s Recreation Committee, noted that this year there will be more rides and more food choices than ever. “We are excited to bring more rides for the children to enjoy,” stated the Councilwoman. Last year, upwards of 3,000 people attend the “Rockin 50’s” themed event. This year the theme is “The Groovy 60’s.” Mayor Raguseo commented that people are encouraged to dress the part.

The evening fireworks display will begin at approximately 8:15 PM. This year the fireworks will be sponsored by Value Fair Market. The flea market will be open from 10 AM – 5 PM. Rides, food and games will be open at 1 PM and continue to 5 PM. The evening musical entertainment will commence at 6 PM. With proof of residency, all Little Ferry residents can enjoy the day for free. There is a $25 entry fee for family’s that are non-residents.
