Mayor Mauro D. Raguseo today invites everyone to the Borough of Little Ferry's Family Fun Day to be held on Saturday, September 25, 2010. The flea market will be 10 AM – 5 PM. The rides, food, games and entertainments will be from 1 PM to 5 PM. The DJ will be performing from 6 PM to 8 PM and the day's festivities will end with a vibrant fireworks display. The fireworks will commence between 8 PM and 830 PM.

Mayor Raguseo hopes to break attendance records at this year's event. This year's theme is the "Rockin 50's". "There are exciting new rides and events this year," stated the Mayor, culminating culminate in a costume contest at approximately 645 PM." Admission is free for Little Ferry residents and for nonresidents there is a $25 entry fee. The Day includes free snow cones, cotton candy, prizes and popcorns. Kids activities include face painting, a petting zoo and various rides. Enough food is available for even the heartiest eater and including hot dogs and zeppoles. There will be a 50's live band playing during the afternoon

Family Fun Day is open to everyone. Little Ferry residents are required to show residency. "Even for nonresidents who have to pay the $25, Family Fun Day is a great and affordable way to spend with your family and we hope to see you there," stated Mayor Raguseo.
